We need to talk about tilapia. A tropical fish that's light and versatile, it has a delicate texture perfect for frying. It takes on a starring role in these summery fish tacos layered with brightly pickled onion slices.

USDA recommends cooking fish to 145° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F. Peel onion, halve, then thinly slice. Halve limes. Rinse mizuna. Rinse tilapia and pat dry with paper towel.

2. Pickle Onion

In a medium bowl, combine red wine vinegar, sugar, and a pinch salt. Stir to dissolve sugar. Add onion, submerging, and set aside to pickle for at least 15 minutes at room temperature.

3. Make Crema and Dressing

While vegetables pickle, stack tortillas, wrap in foil, and place in oven to warm until ready to serve. In a small bowl, whisk together sour cream, juice of ½ lime, and as much Sriracha as desired to make crema. In a large bowl, whisk together honey, juice of 1 lime, and 1 tablespoon olive oil to make dressing. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed.

4. Prepare Tilapia

Combine cornstarch and tapioca flour on a large plate. Season with salt and pepper. Pat tilapia dry again and season on both sides with salt and pepper. Dredge in dry mixture, pressing to adhere and shaking off any excess. Heat 1 tablespoon canola oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add tilapia and sear until almost opaque but not cooked through, about 1 minute per side. Remove and cut into bite-size pieces.

5. Crisp Tilapia

Add ½ tablespoon canola oil to pan from tilapia over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, return tilapia to pan and cook through until crisp, about 1 minute more per side. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate to drain. Meanwhile, add mizuna to bowl with dressing and toss to coat. Drain pickled onion.

6. Plate Tacos

Divide tortillas evenly between 2 plates. Layer on tilapia, then pickled onion, then crema. Halve remaining ½ lime and use as garnish if desired. Serve tacos with salad alongside.
