Crunchy Pork Milanese

with Honey Mustard and Little Gem

Inspired by a past hit featuring chicken Milanese, this repeat favorite applies the technique to boneless pork chops. Use a meat mallet or heavy pan to pound the meat thin—this tenderizes it and maximizes surface area for the crunchy topping. It's coated in panko breadcrumbs and seared until golden and crisp. Pair with a salad of little gem lettuce and tomato, plus our homemade honey mustard for dipping or drizzling.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Rub a little water on your work surface, under the bottom piece of plastic wrap, to keep it from moving around while you pound the pork.

Achieve a crispy, golden crust with the right level of heat. If the pork begins to darken too quickly, add more oil to the pan, 1 tablespoon at a time, as needed.

USDA recommends cooking pork to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients and make dressing

Halve little gem lengthwise and rinse thoroughly, then thinly slice leaves crosswise, discarding tough stem. Rinse tomatoes and halve. In a medium bowl, reserve ½ teaspoon apple cider vinegar and set aside for Step 5; place remainder in a large bowl (big enough for the salad) and whisk in ½ packet Dijon mustard, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Set dressing aside for Step 6.

2. Pound pork chops

Pat pork chops dry with paper towel and place between 2 large pieces plastic wrap. Using a meat mallet or heavy pan, pound to ¼-inch thickness (see recipe tip). Season pork chops all over with ½ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired.

3. Dredge pork chops

Place flour on a large plate and season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. In a large shallow bowl, whisk 1 egg. Place breadcrumbs on a separate large plate. Dredge pork chops in flour, shaking off excess. Dip in egg, allowing excess to drip off. Dredge in breadcrumbs, pressing to adhere.

4. Sear pork chops

Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add pork chops and sear until crust is browned and pork is cooked through and no longer pink, 5–7 minutes per side (see recipe tip). Remove pan from heat. Transfer pork chops to a paper towel–lined plate to drain; set aside.

5. Make honey mustard

While pork sears, to bowl with reserved ½ teaspoon apple cider vinegar, add mayonnaise, honey, cayenne pepper (skip or use half for less heat), remaining Dijon mustard, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Whisk until smooth; set aside for serving.

6. Plate pork Milanese

Add little gem and tomatoes to large bowl with dressing, waiting to toss until ready to serve. Use any remaining downtime while pork sears to set the table. Then, toss little gem salad and transfer to serving plates with crunchy pork Milanese and honey mustard for dipping or drizzling. Dig in!
