Crispy Cocoa-Marshmallow Treats

with White Chocolate

These are not your average bake-sale treats. Tonight's classic puffed rice and marshmallow squares are getting a sweet upgrade with three kinds of chocolate: dark chocolate chunks, white chocolate chips, and cocoa powder. They're sticky, chewy, and best of all, they remind us of a deliciously rich cup of hot cocoa. For that salty-sweet balance we love, add a sprinkle of flaky Maldon salt.

MEALS WORTH MAKING

Ingredients

- 2 ounces dark chocolate
- ⅓ cup white chocolate chips
- 7 packets unsalted butter
- 2 tablespoons cocoa powder
- 3 cups mini marshmallows
- 3 cups puffed rice
- ¼ teaspoon Maldon sea salt
- 1 8" aluminum tin

You'll need

- canola oil
- kosher salt
- 10" large pot

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

No microwave? Create a double boiler: Wipe pot from marshmallow mixture clean and bring 2 inches water to a boil over high heat. Place bowl with white chocolate mixture over pot and stir until chocolate is melted and smooth, 2–4 minutes.

We believe that all good desserts balance sweet with salty. When using Maldon salt, whose flakes are larger than kosher salt, a little goes a long way—only use as much as desired.

1. Prepare ingredients

Roughly chop dark chocolate or leave in bag and gently crush into small pieces with the bottom of a heavy pan. In a medium heatproof bowl, combine white chocolate chips, 1 packet butter, and ½ tablespoon water; set aside until Step 5. Reshape aluminum tin, if bent, and rub with 1 teaspoon canola oil.

2. Make cocoa sauce

Heat remaining butter in a large pot over medium heat. When butter is foamy, add cocoa powder and ⅛ teaspoon kosher salt. Cook, stirring, until mixture is combined and fragrant, about 1 minute.

3. Melt marshmallows and stir in puffed rice

To pot with butter-cocoa mixture, still over medium heat, add marshmallows. Cook, stirring, until marshmallows are melted and smooth, 2–3 minutes. Remove pot from heat. Add puffed rice and dark chocolate chunks and stir until puffed rice is fully coated and combined.

4. Chill marshmallow treats

Working quickly, pour chocolate-marshmallow mixture in prepared tin and press into an even layer, being sure to fill edges and corners of tin (the warmer the mixture is the more pliable it is, so work swiftly). Transfer tin to a flat surface in refrigerator and chill until beginning to set, about 5 minutes.

5. Make white chocolate drizzle

While treats chill, microwave white chocolate mixture in 30-second intervals, stirring well between each, until completely smooth and pourable (see recipe tip). Drizzle white chocolate over marshmallow treats. Sprinkle with Maldon salt as desired (see recipe tip). Return tin to refrigerator; chill until set and completely cool, at least 20 minutes.

6. Plate marshmallow treats

Once completely cool, cut crispy cocoa-marshmallow treats into 2-inch squares and enjoy!
