Crunchy Chicken Milanese

with Honey Mustard and Arugula

We couldn't resist bringing back this American spin on an Italian preparation. In this Encore Recipe, chicken Milanese—pounded thin, breaded, and pan-seared until crispy—is paired with honey mustard for dipping, with a cayenne kick you can adjust to your preferences. An arugula and tomato salad keeps the flavors light while doubling down on the tangy mustard in a creamy vinaigrette.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Rub some water on your work surface, under the bottom piece of plastic wrap, to keep it from moving while pounding the chicken.

If the chicken begins to darken too quickly, add more oil to the pan, 1 tablespoon at a time, as needed.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients and make salad dressing

Rinse tomatoes and halve. In a large bowl (big enough for the salad), whisk together 2 teaspoons mustard, half of apple cider vinegar, 3 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Set aside until Step 6.

2. Pound chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel and place between 2 large pieces plastic wrap. Using a meat mallet or heavy pan, pound to ¼-inch thickness (see recipe tip). Season chicken all over with 1 teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired.

3. Dredge chicken

Place flour on a large plate and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. In a large shallow bowl, whisk 2 eggs. Place breadcrumbs on a separate large plate. Dredge chicken in flour, shaking off excess. Dip in egg, allowing excess to drip off. Dredge in breadcrumbs, pressing to adhere.

4. Sear chicken

Heat 3 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken, working in batches and adding oil in between as needed. Sear until crust is browned and chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 2–4 minutes per side (see recipe tip). Transfer chicken to a paper towel–lined plate to drain.

5. Make honey mustard

In a small bowl, whisk together mayonnaise, honey (to save time, try using a pair of kitchen scissors to cut packets open together), half of cayenne pepper (don't use the entire amount, or your honey mustard could be too spicy —feel free to use less for a milder flavor), remaining mustard, remaining apple cider vinegar, and ¼ teaspoon salt until smooth. Save remaining cayenne to spice up avocado toast.

6. Plate chicken Milanese

Add arugula and tomatoes to bowl with dressing and toss to coat, then divide among serving plates. Transfer chicken Milanese to plates and serve with honey mustard for dipping. Enjoy!
