Crispy Chicken Sandwiches

with Creamy Mustard and Pepperoncini

Inspired by Tennessee's famous hot chicken, tonight's sandwiches dial way back on the spice without sacrificing any of the crispy, juicy goodness. A little cayenne pepper (which you can adjust to your liking) is stirred into mayonnaise, Dijon mustard, garlic, honey, and lemon. The creamy, tangy sauce is the perfect contrast to crunchy breaded chicken breasts and a simple side salad.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Rub a little water on your work surface, under the bottom piece of plastic wrap, to keep it from shifting while you pound the chicken.

Save remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Halve little gem lengthwise and rinse thoroughly, then thinly slice leaves crosswise, discarding tough stems. Halve lemon. Roughly chop pepperoncini. Mince garlic and, still on cutting board, sprinkle over ⅛ teaspoon salt. Using a large knife, carefully scrape over mixture at a 45° angle, pressing down. Repeat until garlic is broken down and a smooth paste forms.

2. Pound chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel and place between 2 large pieces plastic wrap (see recipe tip). Using a meat mallet or heavy pan, pound to ¼-inch thickness. Try to pound the chicken as thinly and evenly as possible, but don't stress if it tears—it will still taste delicious.

3. Dredge chicken

Place flour on a large plate and season with ½ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. In a large shallow bowl, whisk 2 eggs. Season chicken all over with ¾ teaspoon salt. Dip chicken in egg, allowing excess to drip off. Dredge in flour, pressing to adhere.

4. Cook chicken

Heat 3 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear, working in batches and adding oil in between as needed, until crust is browned and chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 3–5 minutes per side. Remove pan from heat. Transfer chicken to a paper towel–lined plate to drain.

5. Warm buns and toss salad

While chicken cooks, slice potato buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole, then wrap in foil and place in oven to warm through, 5–6 minutes. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, stir together pepperoncini, juice of ½ lemon, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Add cabbage and little gem; toss salad to coat.

6. Make sauce and plate

In a small bowl, whisk together mustard, mayonnaise, cayenne (use half for less heat), honey, garlic paste, and 1 squeeze lemon juice (see recipe tip). Transfer buns to serving plates. Spread creamy mustard over bun bottoms; top with a handful of salad. Halve each chicken breast crosswise, then stack and layer onto bun bottoms (everyone gets 2 pieces!). Finish with bun tops. Serve with remaining salad. Dig in!
