Curried Lamb Tacos

with Cabbage Slaw and Cilantro-Lime Yogurt

While curry comes from the southern Indian word kari, meaning "sauce," the catch-all term can refer to a variety of hot and spicy dishes made with a blend of fragrant herbs, seeds, and spices. For this masterful mashup, we're using vindaloo curry paste, a combination of curry powder, vinegar, and oil that quickly coats browned beef and lamb, ensuring super-flavorful tacos that never turn soggy.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Raw red onion has a strong flavor, so only use as much as desired. We suggest using ⅓ cup sliced onion for the slaw, and cooking the rest with the meat in Step 5.

Using a slotted spoon will drain off any excess fat from the meat so it stays in the pan, not in your tacos. When you're ready to clean up, pour the fat into a heatproof container or bottle and dispose in the garbage—pouring melted fat or oil down the drain may damage your pipes.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef and lamb to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Halve limes. Roughly chop cilantro leaves, discarding stems. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic. Pat beef and lamb dry with paper towel.

2. Make cabbage slaw

In a medium bowl, whisk together ½ packet honey, juice of 1 lime, and 1 tablespoon canola oil. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Add slaw mix and up to ⅓ cup onion to bowl with dressing (see recipe tip). Toss to coat, then set aside until ready to serve. Discard remaining honey, or use to sweeten a cup of tea.

3. Make cilantro-lime yogurt

In a small bowl, stir together Greek yogurt, cilantro, half of garlic, juice of remaining lime, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine, then set aside until ready to serve.

4. Toast tortillas

Heat a large pan over medium-high heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away from the pan—when you can easily feel heat, add tortillas in a single layer, working in batches as needed. Toast until warmed through, about 30 seconds per side. Stack tortillas and wrap in foil to keep warm until ready to serve, reserving pan for the next step.

5. Cook beef and lamb

Return pan from tortillas to medium-high heat with 1 tablespoon canola oil. When oil is shimmering, add remaining onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until very soft, about 5 minutes. Stir in remaining garlic and cook until fragrant, 1–2 minutes. Add curry paste and beef and lamb and cook, breaking up meat, until browned, about 5 minutes more. Season with ¾ teaspoon salt, then remove pan from heat.

6. Plate curried lamb tacos

Transfer toasted tortillas to serving plates. Using a slotted spoon, divide curried lamb among tortillas (see recipe tip). Drizzle over cilantro-lime yogurt and top with a handful of cabbage slaw, serving any remainder alongside. Dig in!
