Crispy Fish Lettuce Wraps

with Corn Salad and Lime Crema

Tonight's lettuce wraps are inspired by crispy fish tacos and one of our favorite cookout dishes: corn salad. After turning extra crunchy and golden brown in the pan—thanks to a coating of rice flour—tilapia is piled high over lettuce wraps and topped with lime crema and a sprinkling of crispy quinoa. Bright tomato and corn salad rounds out this terrific summer meal.

- 2 limes, divided
- 2 heads butter lettuce
- ¼ ounce cilantro
- 2 avocados
- 2 ounces mayonnaise
- 2 cups corn
- 1 cup rice flour
- 1 spice mix
  - 1 teaspoon chili powder
  - 1 teaspoon garlic powder
  - 1 teaspoon onion powder
- 1¼ pounds tilapia
- 3 tablespoons crisped quinoa

You'll Need

- ¼ cup + 1 tablespoon olive oil
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- 12" large nonstick pan

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Removing excess moisture from the tilapia will help the rice flour stick to it in a thin layer, creating an evenly browned crust in the pan. USDA recommends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Rinse all produce. Roughly chop tomatoes and add to a large bowl. Halve limes. Pat lettuce dry with paper towel, and separate large leaves for wraps (you'll need at least 3 per person, but if you have extra, double up your wraps!). Pick cilantro leaves, discarding stems, and add to bowl with tomato.

2. Prepare Avocados and Make Crema

Halve avocados and discard pits. Using a spoon, carefully scoop out flesh, discarding skins. Thinly slice 1 avocado, and cut remainder into small dice. Add diced avocado to bowl with tomatoes. Add juice of 1 lime and ¼ teaspoon salt to container with mayonnaise and stir to combine for crema. Set aside.

3. Cook Corn

Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add corn and cook, stirring occasionally, until bright yellow, about 2 minutes. Remove pan from heat and transfer corn to bowl with tomato. Squeeze over juice of remaining lime and season with ¾ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Toss to coat and set aisde. Reserve pan for frying fish.

4. Crust Fish

On a large plate, mix together rice flour, spice mix, ¾ teaspoon salt and pepper to combine. Pat tilapia very dry with paper towel, then cut crosswise into 1-inch strips (see Recipe Tip). Season with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Dredge tilapia pieces in seasoned flour, pressing to adhere.

5. Fry Fish

Wipe pan from corn clean, then return to medium-high heat with 3 tablespoons olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add tilapia (you should hear it sizzle, if not, wait a minute or two until the oil gets a little hotter). Fry tilapia, flipping and working in batches as needed, until crust is crisp and fish is opaque, 6-8 minutes total. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate to drain, and sprinkle over ½ teaspoon salt.

6. Plate Crispy Fish Lettuce Wraps

Divide crispy fish among lettuce wraps, then top with lime crema, sliced avocado, and crisped quinoa. Serve with corn salad and dig into your summery dinner!
