Moroccan Salmon en Papillote

with Spiced Butternut Squash and Harissa-Yogurt Sauce

A favorite French technique meets Moroccan flavors in this aromatic, elegant dish. Salmon is marinaded in lemon, garlic, and smoky harissa and roasted en papillote—in a pouch—alongside spiced butternut squash, chickpeas, and red peppers. It's all drizzled with a bright harissa-yogurt sauce for creamy texture, plus cilantro and fresh mint for a pop of color.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse chickpeas. Rinse cilantro and mint and roughly chop leaves, discarding stems. Cut butternut squash cubes into ½-inch pieces, if needed. Roughly chop roasted red peppers. Halve lemon. Cut 1 half into 4 wedges for Step 6; save remaining lemon for marinade. Mince garlic. Peel shallot and thinly slice. Line a baking sheet with foil and set aside for Step 3. Pat salmon dry with paper towel.

2. Prepare Salmon and Squash

In a large bowl or resealable plastic bag, whisk together harissa, garlic, juice of remaining lemon, and 2 tablespoons olive oil to combine. In a small bowl, reserve half of marinade for sauce. Add salmon to bowl with remaining marinade and turn to coat. On prepared baking sheet, toss spice mix, chickpeas, squash, shallot, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¾ teaspoon salt, and black pepper to coat. Arrange in a single layer.

3. Prepare Papillote

Place a large piece of foil on a clean, dry surface. Halve lengthwise to create a crease, then reopen. Remove salmon from marinade, allowing excess to drip off, and arrange in a single layer on 1 side of crease. Season with ½ teaspoon salt and black pepper. Fold foil over salmon, bringing edges together. Tuck and crimp edges to create a tight seal (see Recipe Tip). Place papillote on a separate baking sheet.

4. Roast Squash and Salmon

Transfer both baking sheets to oven, placing squash on top rack and papillote below. Roast until squash is tender and salmon is opaque, 12 minutes. Then, remove both baking sheets from oven and cut a vent in papillote foil to allow steam to escape. Set aside to cool. Add roasted red peppers to squash mixture and mix to combine. Return baking sheet with squash mixture to oven and bake until slightly browned, 3-4 minutes.

5. Make Harissa-Yogurt Sauce

While squash and salmon roast, stir reserved marinade into container with yogurt. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. Whisk in 1 tablespoon water, if needed, to thin sauce until smooth and pourable. Refrigerate until ready to serve. Use any remaining downtime to set the table.

6. Plate Moroccan Salmon

Once roasted, transfer spiced butternut squash to serving plates. Top with Moroccan salmon and drizzle over harissa-yogurt sauce. Sprinkle over cilantro and mint. Serve with lemon wedges for squeezing over, and dig in!
