

Mini Goat Cheese Cheesecakes

with Apricot-Basil Compote and Toasted Pistachios

When the summer days are too hot for turning on the oven, we love making these super simple, no-bake cheesecakes. The sweet and tangy combination of cream cheese and goat cheese is whipped into a light, airy filling for graham cracker crusts. For an easy fruit topping, we're stirring together apricot preserves with bits of dried apricot and seasonal basil. Serve these at your next party—the individual servings make sharing easy.

1. Prepare ingredients

Place cream cheese and goat cheese in a large bowl and set aside to soften at room temperature. Roughly chop dried apricots. Mince basil leaves, discarding stems.

2. Toast pistachios

Place pistachios in a small pot over medium-high heat. Toast, stirring, until golden and fragrant, about 3 minutes (see recipe tip). Remove pot from heat, transfer pistachios to cutting board, and roughly chop. Set aside for Step 6, reserving pot for next step.

3. Make compote

Return pot from pistachios to medium-high heat and add dried apricots and 1 cup water. Bring to a simmer, stirring occasionally, until apricots become plump and softened, about 2 minutes. Drain and transfer apricots to a medium bowl. To bowl with apricots, stir in apricot preserves and basil until combined; set aside for Step 6.

4. Make cheesecake filling

To bowl with softened cream cheese and goat cheese, add powdered sugar, vanilla extract, 1 tablespoon water, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Using a fork, mash filling together to combine, then whisk vigorously until smooth and fluffy (see recipe tip).

5. Finish cheesecakes

Spoon cheesecake filling into graham cracker crusts, dividing evenly, and spread in an even layer. Transfer cheesecakes to refrigerator until chilled through, at least 20 minutes (this is a great time to get ahead on dishes).

6. Plate cheesecakes

Once chilled, top each mini goat cheese cheesecake with apricot-basil compote. Garnish with toasted pistachios and dig in!
