Pan-Roasted Chicken

with Artichokes, Potatoes, and Herbed Yogurt Sauce

We love a good seasonal twist on the classic potato hash. In this Popular Recipe, we're incorporating tender artichoke hearts, roasting them with red-skinned potatoes and tossing in juicy tomatoes at the end for more color and texture. Crispy homemade croutons and golden, pan-roasted chicken are piled on top, and everything's drizzled with a zingy, herbal yogurt sauce for a cool counterpart.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Enlist a helping hand to whisk the sauce ingredients. We recommend juicing ½ lemon, but feel free to start with a little, then taste and add more as desired (heads-up: This could change how much water you'll need to add to thin the sauce). Save remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Cut baguette into 1-inch cubes. Rinse all produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch cubes. Halve tomatoes. Keeping herbs separate, roughly chop parsley leaves and finely chop sage leaves, discarding stems. Drain artichoke hearts and roughly chop. Halve lemon. Trim and discard scallion root and thinly slice, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Wrap whole garlic clove in a small piece of foil.

2. Season vegetables and croutons

Line a baking sheet with foil. Add potatoes and artichokes and toss with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. On a separate baking sheet, toss baguette cubes with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer. Add pouch with garlic to baking sheet with baguette.

3. Roast vegetables and croutons

Transfer both baking sheets to oven and roast until croutons are golden, 6–8 minutes (move on to Step 4—but don't forget to come back!). Then, remove croutons and garlic from oven, leaving vegetables behind to continue roasting until tender and browned, 6–7 minutes more. Once vegetables are roasted, remove from oven. Add tomatoes to sheet and toss to combine (the residual heat will help soften the tomatoes a bit).

4. Cook chicken

While croutons and vegetables roast, pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear until cooked through and no longer pink, about 6 minutes per side. Transfer chicken to a plate and set aside to rest.

5. Make herbed yogurt sauce

While chicken cooks, remove roasted garlic from foil pouch, then mince and place in a small bowl. Add yogurt, scallion whites and light greens, half of parsley, and half of sage. Whisk in juice of ½ lemon (see recipe tip) and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Adding 1 tablespoon at a time, whisk in up to 3 tablespoons water until sauce is smooth and pourable. Set aside until ready to serve.

6. Plate chicken

Divide roasted vegetables and croutons between serving plates. Top with pan-roasted chicken and drizzle over herbed yogurt sauce. Garnish with remaining parsley, remaining sage, and scallion dark greens, and enjoy!
