Miso-Glazed Cod with Quinoa, Avocado, and Apple Cider Vinaigrette

Total Time: 30-40 minutes Calories per Serving: 630

Serves: 2 people

Miso is a fermented soybean paste with a sweet-and-salty flavor. Often used in Asian dishes, it is combined with soy sauce here to glaze the cod for a flavorful finish. A side of quinoa adds a bit of heartiness.

USDA recommends cooking fish to 145° F.

1. Cook Quinoa

Preheat oven to 425°F. Place quinoa, 1¼ cups water, and a pinch salt in a small pot over high heat. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer until water is evaporated and quinoa is tender, about 10 minutes. Remove pot from heat, cover, and set aside.

2. Roast Cod

Pat cod dry with paper towel. Season all over with ¼ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper, then place rounded-side up on a foil-lined baking sheet. In a small bowl, whisk together miso paste and soy sauce to make glaze, then spread over cod. Transfer to oven and roast until glaze is browned and cod is opaque, about 10 minutes.

3. Prepare Ingredients

While cod roasts, rinse tomatoes and halve. Rinse scallions, trim and discard roots, then thinly slice. Peel onion and cut as much as desired into small dice (see Recipe Tip). Halve limes.

4. Season Quinoa

In a medium bowl, whisk apple cider vinegar, juice of 1½ limes, and 1 tablespoon olive oil. Add quinoa, tomatoes, scallions, and onion and toss to coat. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed.

5. Prepare Avocado

Halve avocado and discard pit. Using a spoon, carefully scoop out flesh and discard skin. Thinly slice. Squeeze over juice of remaining ½ lime and season with salt and pepper.

6. Plate Cod

Using a fork, flake cod into bite-size pieces, discarding skin. Serve on top of quinoa and enjoy with a bright garnish of avocado.
