Pan-Roasted Chicken

with Brussels Sprout Gratin and Apple Cider Pan Sauce

We like to experiment with the comforting cheesiness of French gratin, swapping in our favorite seasonal vegetables beneath the crispy breadcrumb topping. Here, roasted Brussels sprouts and dinosaur kale turn perfectly tender in close quarters with gooey mozzarella, Fontina, and cream. It's a luscious foil for a tangy apple cider sauce, made with the flavorful pan drippings from golden seared chicken.

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Deglazing is a technique in which adding liquid, like vinegar and stock, to the pan after cooking protein loosens any flavorful browned bits stuck to the bottom, so you can scrape them up into your pan sauce. Save the remaining stock to use this trick in another chicken dinner.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Reshape tin if bent. Rinse all produce. Halve Brussels sprouts lengthwise through roots, then place in tin. Finely chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Stack kale leaves, trim and discard stems, and thinly slice crosswise. Peel shallots and thinly slice into rings. Mince garlic. In a small bowl, stir together breadcrumbs, 1 tablespoon olive oil, and ¼ teaspoon salt to combine.

2. Make Brussels Sprout Gratin

Toss sprouts in tin with half of shallots, half of garlic, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Roast until sprouts are softening, 12-14 minutes (move on to Step 3, but don't forget to come back!). Then, remove tin from oven. Stir in cream, mozzarella, Fontina, and kale to combine. Sprinkle over breadcrumbs. Return to oven and bake until cheese is bubbling and breadcrumbs are crispy, 12-15 minutes more.

3. Cook Chicken

While sprouts roast, pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear until cooked through and no longer pink, about 6 minutes per side. Transfer chicken to serving plates, reserving pan, and cover loosely with foil to keep warm.

4. Sauté Aromatics

Return pan from chicken to medium-high heat and add 1 packet butter. When butter is foamy, add remaining shallots and remaining garlic and sauté, stirring, until lightly browned and fragrant, 1-2 minutes.

5. Make Pan Sauce

Add apple cider vinegar and ½ cup chicken stock to pan with aromatics. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce heat to medium low and simmer, scraping up browned bits from bottom of pan, until sauce is slightly thickened, 5 minutes (see Recipe Tip). Then, remove pan from heat and stir in remaining butter and half of parsley. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate Pan-Roasted Chicken

Spoon apple cider pan sauce over pan-roasted chicken, and serve with Brussels sprout gratin. Garnish everything with remaining parsley, and dig in!
