Nectarine Shortcakes

with Marsala, Mint, and Pecans

This upgrade on the classic shortcake uses a Southern-style cornbread layered with seasonal fruit cooked with Marsala—a fortified wine from Italy's southern region of Sicily that's often used in cooking to impart a depth of flavor. Here, it's combined with cinnamon and nectarines to create a syrupy filling. Reserving some of the Marsala syrup to fold into handmade whipped cream adds an extra touch of elegance.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Chilled tools make whipping cream a lot easier. If you have a stand or hand mixer, feel free to chill just the bowl.

Using a serrated knife, hold the top of the cornbread with the palm of your non-dominant hand and cut through slow and steady to ensure an even cut.

1. Prepare ingredients

Place a large bowl and whisk in the refrigerator for whipping cream in Step 3 (see recipe tip). Rinse all produce. Slice off rounded sides of nectarines, discarding pits, and cut into ¼-inch slices. Roughly chop half of mint leaves, discarding stems (use remaining mint in another recipe or to garnish a fresh fruit salad). Slice each cornbread in half horizontally (see recipe tip).

2. Cook nectarines

In a medium pan, add Marsala wine, cinnamon, and sugar. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce to medium high and add nectarines. Simmer, stirring frequently, until nectarines have softened and liquid becomes thickened and syrupy, 7–9 minutes. Remove pan from heat.

3. Whip heavy cream

While nectarines simmer, remove bowl and whisk from refrigerator. Add heavy cream and whip until thickened and soft peaks form. Chill in refrigerator until nectarines are cooked.

4. Finish whipped cream

Once nectarines are cooked, remove bowl with whipped cream from refrigerator. Add 1 teaspoon Marsala syrup from pan with nectarines and fold to combine.

5. Plate shortcakes

Divide bottom half of cornbread among serving plates and top with Marsala nectarines and syrup. Cover with remaining cornbread and garnish with chopped pecans and mint. Serve each nectarine shortcake with a dollop of Marsala whipped cream. Enjoy!
