Mushroom-Provolone Panini

with Fig Jam and Roasted Red Peppers

As if you needed another reason to love panini, here's one: The addictive sandwiches make an ideal canvas for testing out cheese pairings. In this repeat favorite, we're matching provolone and mozzarella with fig jam and roasted cremini mushrooms. To complement the cheese and jam, we're layering on roasted red peppers and serving with a little gem salad for a refreshing contrast. Sweet and salty perfection? We think so.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Wiping mushrooms clean instead of rinsing prevents them from absorbing water. They won't brown well if they're too wet.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Remove and discard mushroom stems; wipe caps clean with a damp paper towel and thinly slice (see recipe tip). Halve little gem lengthwise and rinse thoroughly, then thinly slice leaves crosswise, discarding tough stem. Rinse parsley and roughly chop leaves, discarding stems. Finely chop roasted red peppers. Peel shallots, halve, and thinly slice.

2. Make garlic paste

Mince garlic and, still on cutting board, sprinkle over ⅛ teaspoon salt. Using a large knife, carefully scrape over mixture at a 45° angle, pressing down. Repeat until garlic is broken down and a smooth paste forms (see recipe tip). Place ¼ teaspoon garlic paste in a large bowl and reserve for Step 5.

3. Roast mushrooms and shallots

On a baking sheet, toss mushrooms and shallots with remaining garlic paste (not reserved ¼ teaspoon), 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and roast until tender and lightly browned, 12–15 minutes.

4. Assemble and bake panini

While mushrooms and shallots roast, on a separate baking sheet, arrange bread slices in a single layer. Drizzle over olive oil, then flip. Spread fig jam over 2 bread slices. Sprinkle mozzarella and provolone over remaining bread slices. Bake (with mushrooms and shallots) until bread is golden and cheese is melted, 6–7 minutes.

5. Make salad

While panini bake, add sherry vinegar to bowl with reserved ¼ teaspoon garlic paste, along with half of roasted red peppers (reserve remainder for the next step), 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Stir to combine. Add little gem and parsley and toss to coat.

6. Plate panini

Once baked, top cheese sides of bread slices with remaining roasted red peppers, then roasted mushrooms and shallots. Finish with remaining bread slices, fig jam–side down. Halve mushroom-provolone panini and serve with little gem salad. Dig in!
