12 ounces pizza dough

  2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
⅔ cup powdered sugar
1 parchment paper
1 aluminum tin

You'll Need

baking sheet
rolling pin (optional)

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

If you have trouble rolling the dough, let it temper at room temperature for 5 minutes before continuing.

Keep the cinnamon sugar inside your rolls by sealing the seam securely. Using your fingertips, pinch the dough together.

Parchment paper makes a great nonstick surface for rolling up and cutting your dough. The cinnamon rolls are baked in a tin, though, so your pachment can be tossed after rolling.

1. Melt Butter

Preheat oven to 375°F. In a small bowl, microwave butter in 30-second intervals until melted. Alternatively, melt butter in a small pot over medium heat. Once melted, transfer to a small heatsafe bowl. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Reshape aluminum tin if bent.

2. Roll Out Dough

Sprinkle flour onto a clean, dry surface. Using a rolling pin or the heels of your hands, roll and stretch pizza dough into a rectangular shape about ¼-inch thick (see Recipe Tip). Carefully transfer to parchment-lined baking sheet.

3. Assemble Cinnamon Rolls

Rub half of melted butter onto dough. Set aside 2 teaspoons sugar mix, then sprinkle remaining sugar mix over dough. Beginning with long end closest to you, roll dough away from you to create a cylinder, then pinch seam to seal (see Recipe Tip). Cut crosswise into 16 equal pieces. Place cinnamon rolls cut-side up in tin in a single layer. Pour over remaining melted butter, then sprinkle over reserved 2 teaspoons sugar mix.

4. Bake Cinnamon Rolls

Remove and discard parchment paper from baking sheet (see Recipe Tip). Place tin on baking sheet from dough, transfer to oven, and bake until fragrant and golden, about 30 minutes. Remove and set aside to cool for about 5 minutes.

5. Make Icing

While cinnamon rolls cool, in a small bowl, whisk together powdered sugar and 2 tablespoons warm water until smooth.

6. Plate Cinnamon Rolls

Drizzle icing over cinnamon rolls while still slightly warm. Enjoy all cinnamon rolls at once. (But if you have leftovers, store in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 3 days.)
